

Notice of Race
Nickerson Trophy
Bacow Sailing Pavilion, Tufts University
Upper Mystic Lake, October 27-28, 2018

1 Rules

The regatta will be governed by the Racing Rules of Sailing, the ICSA Procedural Rules, and the sailing instructions.

2 Schedule

Saturday report time	1030
Competitors Meeting	1045
First start Saturday	1120
No Saturday start after	1800
Sunday report time	0930
First start Sunday	1010
No Sunday start after	1500

Note: the boathouse will not open before 1000 for early arrivals on Saturday.

3 Sailing Instructions will be available via Tech Score by Friday

4 Format

“A” division will start with two races, followed by “B” division, alternating throughout. Lunch for each division is during any off set.

5 Courses

5.1 Course 4 will be the standard course (W-L-W-L with windward offset and leeward gate)

5.2 Course 5 (W-L-W-L-W with offset and gate) may be used as well.

5.3 Course 6 is also a possibility

5.4 If windy enough, T (trapezoid), (W-R-L-R-W, twice around) Could be marks to starboard.

6 Larks, built in 2016 by Whitecap Composites are beautiful; keep them that way. Adjusting the shroud pins between races is permitted except that no spare clevis pins and cotter rings will be supplied if you lose any.

7 Protests

7.1 Forms are available in the office and must be filled during the first offset after the incident.

7.2 Protests will be heard in the Crystal Lake Room (conference room)

8 Prizes for all is the opportunity to sail the coolest boats in all of college sailing.

9 Boathouse Use

9.1 Gear bags and changing of clothes are not allowed on the top floor.

9.2 Food is allowed on the top floor but be neat.

10 Parking is plentiful, just be sure you are in a legal space, not a handicap space.

11 PRO will be Tufts alums Reid Van Gorder Saturday and Steve Braverman Sunday.

12 For further info contact kenneth.legler@tufts.edu