VENUE: Alford Boat House on Lake Virginia

COMPETITORS: Top 9 SAISA Women's Teams in good standing

BOATS: 18 FJs will be provided

REPORT TIME: 9:00

COMPETITORS MEETING: 9:15 AM

RACING: Combined Divisions

Protests: Protests will be handled onshore after racing or in postponement

ROTATIONS: Rotations will occur on Barrett Dock after each set

FORMAT: 2 race sets for races equal to the number of competitors will be attempted. Max 14 races.

COURSES: Courses will be W3, W4, or W5 conditions dependent.

COACHING: Coaches will be onshore.

Food/Drink: Please bring your food and refillable containers for water. A bottle fill-up station is in the front lobby of the boathouse. Sailors are encouraged to eat lunch between sets.

Team Staging: Teams are welcome to bring pop-up tents and set them up on the grassy area North of the boathouse. Teams may also stage inside the garage. Lastly, good viewing can also be had in the Crow's Nest upstairs at the boat house although there is limited space available.

DROP OFF – The best place to drop off your sailors is to the left of the Rollins Art Museum at the end of Holt Avenue. To the left of the museum, you will see a wooden walkway that leads down to a clay path along the lake. Follow that path to the Alford Boat House.

PARKING – Park in the multi-story parking lot at the corner of E Fairbanks Av and Ollie Av. However, if you are driving an oversized or tall vehicle, use the dirt lot at the corner of E Fairbanks Av and Chapman Av.
