

Addendum #1 to Sailing Instructions

1. The gate marks are not part of the course on the final downwind leg to a finish. Boats do not have to pass through the gate to cross the finish line.
2. At the end of each day's sailing, boats are to be hauled out on dollies and thoroughly rinsed. Sails are to be rolled up separately and put in sailbags, with the sailbags placed in the boat.